

At the heart of the city of Ghent, in the shadow of the cathedral, you can find St Bavo's House. It is a unique place where past and present meet each other in an historical setting.

You can book St Bavo's House for educational purposes, for seminars or business meetings. Our meeting rooms (seating 16 up to 120 people) are equipped with wifi, projectors, moveable flip charts or white boards and sound amplifiers.

On top of that the staff at St Bavo's House guides you through your event from start to finish, offering support when necessary:

- Preparatory support
We can advise you on the preparations of your event by phone, mail or in person.
- On site support
We are completely at your disposal for technical support (projection, audio equipment...); we even print your documents.
- Catering according to your wishes
Our dining room can seat up to 70 people, our receptions hall easily welcomes 150.

And all this is within walking distance of Ghent's most famous attractions: The Mystic Lamb, St Bavo's Cathedral, the beguinages, the Castle of the Counts, the Graslei and the Korenlei, etc.
